Art. 81.3.1 FIBA Europe Regulations: If a player, after having played for a club affiliated to a FIBA Europe member national federation plays for an academic institution which does not recognise the FIBA/FIBA Europe Regulations governing the International Transfer of Players or plays for an organization which is not recognised by the respective National Federation and subsequently returns to a FIBA Europe club, he is then considered as having transferred from a FIBA Europe club to a FIBA Europe club. In other words, his playing activities during his stay at the academic institution or non-recognised organisation as defined above, will be disregarded.

Art. 81.3.2 FIBA Europe Regulations: A player who has not played for a FIBA Europe club before playing for an academic institution or a club belonging to a non-recognised organisation (as defined in 81.3.1 above) and who wants to play for a FIBA Europe club for the first time, does not need a letter of clearance: he is eligible to play as soon as he has presented the duly completed and signed FIBA Europe Self- Declaration to the national federation concerned, stating that he has never played for a FIBA club.
